RESOLUTION UNDER 322

re : Constitution of Committee to inquire and report on alleged atrocities on Political workers in the State after the Sixth Assembly Elections.

MR. SPEAKER.—The hon'ble Leader of the Opposition has to move the resolution according to rule 133.

SRI BHASKAR NAIDU.—I want to know whether the Chair has permitted the Leader of the Opposition to move the resolution ?

MR. SPEAKER.—He has to seek leave of the House.

SRI M. C. NANAIAH.—I want to know whether the rule concerning the waiving of period of 15 days is suspended ?

SRI S. R. BOMMAI.—Mr. Speaker, Sir, I have already requested that rule 322 be suspended and the resolution sighted at the agenda be permitted to be moved. I do not want to elaborately make a speech on this because yesterday we have discussed it. I therefore request the House through you, Sir, to suspend rule 322 and permit me to move the resolution.

SRI BHASKAR NAIDU.—May I know whether rule 322 has any bearing on rule 134 ? To my mind it has an important bearing. Rule 134 says among other things that in order that a resolution may be admissible, it shall satisfy the following conditions, namely.—

(i) it shall be clearly and precisely expressed and shall raise substantially one definite issue ;"
